

The National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum

+++++

As keepers of the Game's history and treasures, the Hall of Fame certainly appreciates hearing from true Baseball fans like yourself. We share your love and passion for our great Game, and we would love for you to be a part of the Hall of Fame family.

Our Friends of the Hall of Fame membership program is a way for you to stay connected with this institution throughout the year. As a not-for-profit institution, membership support allows us to advance the Museum's educational programs and aids us in the preservation of artifacts and archival materials that document the rich history of America's Game. Additionally, membership packages are wonderful and unique gifts for friends and family.

Members also enjoy many privileges, including free admission to the Hall of Fame year round. To learn more about the program and its many benefits, please click on the following:

COMMENT:

Hi,

I recently purchased Babe Ruth's very last bat that he used in his last at bat from Mastro's Fine Sports Auction. It was originally owned by Wally Berger, Ruth's teammate, and ended up from his wife's hand into the Barry Halper collection. I was wondering if you had any interest in displaying it on loan from our family? Please let me know, preferably in writing, and thank you for your consideration. I was thinking what a thrill it would be to come to visit the Hall for my first time and to see the bat displayed there for all to enjoy. I may be reached during the day anytime at (310) 466-8622 if you would like to contact me.

Sincerely, Steve Mears
