

I've asked for better pictures of the shoulders lying flat to see the entire surface area. I've seen this team repair in multiple pictures but until I get a better scan from the auction house I don't know if this repair exists.

I can't tell with certainty that the stitching on his left sleeves matches perfectly. I see three "highpoint" stitch marks on both jerseys but do they align on the sleeve correctly? Also the white/grey/white lines are displaced a bit. The left set of lines is just above the right set of lines
